Daisy Camp to Provide Divorce Resources and Retreat

The Daisy Camp is a one of a kind weekend retreat that provides financial, legal and experienced advice from qualified professionals that can help women that are going through a divorce transition. Coupled with the business seminars, many inspirational and self care sessions will help enable women to navigate the business and emotional realities that come from a divorce proceeding.

Attendees will leave with a Divorce Handbook to guide and direct them after the retreat.

What: Daisy Camp for women in divorce transition.

When: February 1st 7pm-10pm; February 2nd 9am-10pm; February 3rd 9am-1pm
